JCS have reviewed your msg 8 Feb 52 concerning intelligence problems in Far East and reply as fol:

A. Establishment of jt organization to support your intelligence mission appears desirable. Authority and guidance for establishment of such an organization are set forth in Jt Action Armed Forces (JAAF) 19 Sep 51.

B. Procurement and basic trng of necessary intelligence specialists of all categories required by Cdrs are responsibility of the three services, and chief of the three mil services have been directed to assign adequate priority to procurement and trng of intelligence specialists. In this connection, it is suggested that each service be notified of number and type of intelligence specialists which should be procured and trained by them to meet your requirements on basis of number spaces that will be required in your troop basis for this purpose.

C. In order to give proper recognition to growing mil str of Communist China, intelligence collection priorities applicable to all intelligence agencies of Govt must be established. To accomplish this, action is being taken through intelligence advisory comte to establish critical natl intelligence objectives on Communist China.

D. With respect to espionage opns in direct support of mil Cdrs missions, negots are being initiated between chiefs of
